Allowable Subject Matter

1. Applicant's arguments to the drawings and specification are deemed to overcome the outstanding office action.

Claims 1-26 are allowable.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art does not teach or suggest the switch assembly comprising a base plate being penetrable by first and second conductive switch legs, a variable resistance means responsive to an angular position of a rotatable member, the variable resistance means being electrically connected between third and fourth conductive legs wherein the resilient tactile member is electrically separate from the electrical connection between the first and second conductive switch legs.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
